ORAL JUDGMENT: (per the Hon'ble the Chief Justice)

Challenge in this appeal is to the order passed by the learned single Judge disposing of the writ petition that whenever second respondent would initiate proceedings for recovery of the amount, the petitioner-appellant will be at liberty to question such recovery made by the respondents. As of today, learned counsel for the petitioner- appellant states that amount has since been recovered. As amount has already been recovered, we decline to interfere in this appeal with the order of the learned single Judge with liberty reserved to the petitioner-appellant, in case the petitioner-appellant is still aggrieved, to initiate appropriate proceedings in accordance with law.

Writ Appeal is dismissed.
